

Fake Profiles & Manipulation Quiz

Name: _____

Class: _____

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. A profile is two days old, has three photos and no tagged friends. What is the best conclusion?

- ☐ a) It is definitely fake
- ☐ b) Several clues together are a reason to slow down
- ☐ c) It is definitely fine
- ☐ d) Ask for their password to check

2. Which of these is the strongest warning sign?

- ☐ a) They like the same music as you
- ☐ b) They reply quickly
- ☐ c) They ask you to keep your chats secret
- ☐ d) They post a lot of photos

3. Someone asks you to switch to disappearing messages. Why can that be risky?

- ☐ a) It uses more data
- ☐ b) It makes it harder to save proof if something goes wrong
- ☐ c) It is against the law
- ☐ d) It is never risky

4. You feel confused and uneasy about a chat, but nothing “bad” has happened yet. What should you do?

- ☐ a) Ignore the feeling, you’re overreacting
- ☐ b) Slow down, keep the chat, and get a second opinion
- ☐ c) Send what they ask so it stops
- ☐ d) Delete everything

5. True or false: a healthy person keeps pushing when you seem uncomfortable.

- ☐ a) True
- ☐ b) False

Answer key

#	Answer	Why
1	b) Several clues together are a reason to slow down	One clue proves nothing. When clues pile up, slow down and look closer.
2	c) They ask you to keep your chats secret	Secrecy cuts you off from people who could help you see what is happening.
3	b) It makes it harder to save proof if something goes wrong	Temporary messages make it harder to keep evidence and get help.
4	b) Slow down, keep the chat, and get a second opinion	Confusion is often the first signal. You don't need proof that it is serious enough.
5	b) False	A healthy person backs off. A risky person keeps pushing.