

Pressure & Unwanted Content Quiz

Name: _____

Class: _____

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Someone you like keeps asking for a private photo and says, "If you loved me, you would." This is:

- ☐ a) A normal part of dating
- ☐ b) Pressure, which is not consent
- ☐ c) Only a problem if they are a stranger
- ☐ d) A sign they really care

2. A classmate sends you an unwanted sexual image, then writes "your turn." What do you owe them?

- ☐ a) A photo back
- ☐ b) An explanation
- ☐ c) Nothing at all
- ☐ d) A reply within a day

3. What should you save as evidence?

- ☐ a) The image itself
- ☐ b) The messages, username, date and time
- ☐ c) Nothing, delete everything
- ☐ d) A video of the screen

4. Why shouldn't you forward the image to a friend to ask for advice?

- ☐ a) It wastes data
- ☐ b) It spreads the harm and can create legal risk
- ☐ c) Your friend might be busy
- ☐ d) It is fine to forward it

5. True or false: if you replied or flirted at first, you no longer deserve help.

- ☐ a) True
- ☐ b) False

Answer key

#	Answer	Why
1	b) Pressure, which is not consent	Turning love into proof is pressure. You don't owe anyone images or messages.
2	c) Nothing at all	Receiving something never creates a debt. Don't send anything and don't forward it.
3	b) The messages, username, date and time	Save the details, never the explicit image. A trusted adult or the reporting service can guide you.
4	b) It spreads the harm and can create legal risk	Describe what happened instead, or show the device to a trusted adult.
5	b) False	You deserve support even if you replied, flirted, trusted someone or made a mistake.