

Your Rights Online: Quiz

Name: _____

Class: _____

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Nour finds a photo of herself shared online with mocking comments. What does a rights-based approach say?

- ☐ a) It's online, so nothing can be done
- ☐ b) She still matters online: she can save details, report and get help
- ☐ c) She should post something back
- ☐ d) She should delete all her accounts

2. Your partner wants your password to "prove" you trust them. Which is true?

- ☐ a) Sharing passwords is normal in a relationship
- ☐ b) Privacy isn't something you have to earn
- ☐ c) You must share if you have nothing to hide
- ☐ d) Only share it if they share theirs

3. You agreed to send a photo to one friend. Does that mean they can share it?

- ☐ a) Yes, you sent it
- ☐ b) No. Agreeing to one thing isn't agreeing to wider sharing
- ☐ c) Only with close friends
- ☐ d) Only if it's not embarrassing

4. Which of these is NOT one of the four rights-based principles in the lesson?

- ☐ a) Dignity
- ☐ b) Safety
- ☐ c) Support
- ☐ d) Popularity

5. True or false: you only deserve support if you made perfect choices.

- ☐ a) True
- ☐ b) False

Answer key

#	Answer	Why
1	b) She still matters online: she can save details, report and get help	Rights turn "I'm stuck" into "I have next steps."
2	b) Privacy isn't something you have to earn	Healthy relationships leave room for privacy.
3	b) No. Agreeing to one thing isn't agreeing to wider sharing	Consent matters online too, and it can be specific.
4	d) Popularity	Dignity, safety, support and voice stay strong wherever you live.
5	b) False	You deserve help even if you trusted someone, sent something, argued back or waited to tell.